Fri, 12 Oct 2018 02:05:00 GMT - Grytviken is a settlement on the island of South Georgia, part of a British Overseas Territory in the South Atlantic. The settlement's name is Swedish in origin, meaning "the Pot Bay". The name was coined in 1902 by the Swedish Antarctic Expedition and documented by the Swedish surveyor Johan Gunnar Andersson, after the expedition found old English try pots used to render seal oil at the site.
